RICHARD E. GERSTEIN, Florida State's Attorney, Dade County, Florida, was contacted at his office in the Dade County Justice Building, Miami, Florida.

Mr. GERSTEIN confirmed that his Chief Investigator, MARTIN F. DARDIS, obtained a sworn statement on August 23, 1972, from KENNETH DAHLBERG of Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Boca Raton, Florida. The statement was taken within the offices of the Florida State's Attorney at Miami, Florida.

Mr. GERSTEIN declined to furnish the Federal Bureau of Investigation with a copy of the sworn statement of KENNETH DAHLBERG, or any other statement obtained by his office; stating that he made such declination on the basis of a ruling in the Florida Supreme Court, which ruling prohibits a State's Attorney within the State of Florida from furnishing sworn statements to persons outside that office.

Mr. GERSTEIN stated that he would not resist a Federal subpoena which might eventually be served upon him for a copy of the statement of KENNETH DAHLBERG.

Thereafter, Mr. GERSTEIN authorized his Chief Investigator, Mr. DARDIS, who was present in the same room, to orally furnish to SA WILLIAM P. KELLY the contents of the sworn statement of KENNETH DAHLBERG. Mr. GERSTEIN further stated that he possesses no information regarding from what source or sources Washington, D.C., columnist JACK ANDERSON received information relative to the contents of the sworn statement of DAHLBERG, which was furnished to Mr. DARDIS.

MARTIN F. DARDIS, Chief Investigator of the Florida State's Attorney's Office for Dade County, Florida, was interviewed in the offices of his superior, RICHARD E. GERSTEIN, Florida State's Attorney. Mr. GERSTEIN was present for the initial and closing minutes of the interview, but was out of the room during the bulk of the time consumed by the interview.

MARTIN F. DARDIS furnished the following information:

On August 23, 1972, Mr. DARDIS took a sworn statement, within the confines of the Florida State's Attorney's Office for Dade County, from KENNETH DAHLBERG, Minneapolis, Minnesota, and Boca Raton, Florida. The only other person present was a court reporter of the State's Attorney's Office.

DAHLBERG at first was reluctant to identify the source of the $25,000 cash furnished to him as a contribution to the Republican Party's Committee to Re-Elect President RICHARD M. NIXON. Finally, however, DAHLBERG identified the source of the money as DWAYNE ANDREAS of the Minneapolis, Minnesota, area, and the Sea View Hotel, Bal Harbour, Florida. DAHLBERG stated that he received a telephone call at Minneapolis, Minnesota, on April 5, 1972. The call was originated by DWAYNE ANDREAS from the Miami area. ANDREAS and DAHLBERG discussed a prospective contribution by ANDREAS to the Republican Party. Both men had had previous discussions regarding a potential contribution by ANDREAS. At the time of the call, ANDREAS told DAHLBERG that ANDREAS then had $25,000 cash available for a political contribution to the Republican Party. ANDREAS told DAHLBERG that ANDREAS had placed cash in a safe deposit box of the Sea View Hotel, Bal Harbour, Florida.

DAHLBERG related he traveled from Minneapolis to the Miami area returning on April 7, 1972 for the purpose of obtaining the $25,000 contribution from ANDREAS. DAHLBERG did not relate, nor was he asked by DARDIS, by what airline he traveled to the Miami area.

DAHLBERG told DARDIS that upon DAHLBERG's arrival in the Miami area, April 7, 1972, the safe deposit box of ANDREAS was closed for the night.

DAHLBERG related he talked to ANDREAS in the Miami area on April 8, 1972 and arranged a golf match with ANDREAS for the following day, April 9, 1972. They arranged to meet at the Sea View Hotel. Accordingly, DAHLBERG and his wife went to the Sea View Hotel on April 9, 1972. DAHLBERG and his wife and ANDREAS all got into the car of ANDREAS in front of the Sea View Hotel. Shortly thereafter, ANDREAS entered the Sea View Hotel alone, and soon thereafter returned to the car carrying $25,000 cash. ANDREAS told DAHLBERG, in the presence of Mrs. DAHLBERG, that he (ANDREAS) obtained this cash from his safe deposit box at the Sea View Hotel. This incident occurred during daytime hours of April 9, 1972.

Thereafter, the DAHLBERGs and ANDREAS drove together to the Indian Creek Country Club Golf Course in Dade County, Florida. At that location, ANDREAS gave the $25,000 cash to DAHLBERG.

DAHLBERG took the cash with him on the night of April 9, 1972 to his home in Boca Raton, Florida, where he kept the cash overnight.

On April 10, 1972, DAHLBERG took the $25,000 cash to the First Bank and Trust Company, Boca Raton, Florida. At that location, he purchased with the cash a $25,000 cashier's check payable to KENNETH DAHLBERG.

On April 11, 1972, DAHLBERG flew to Washington, D.C., to attend a meeting of the Republican Finance Committee at which meeting representatives of the various states had financial representatives. The meeting was held at the Washington Hilton Hotel. At this meeting DAHLBERG endorsed the $25,000 cashier's check and handed it to MAURICE STANS, Committee Chairman. DAHLBERG stated he knows nothing of what happened to the check after he gave it to Mr. STANS.

Relative to BERNARD BARKER, DAHLBERG stated he does not know and never met BARKER. DAHLBERG was not asked by DARDIS whether or not he knew any of the other persons who were arrested with BARKER at the Democratic National Headquarters in Washington, D.C., since DARDIS stated his office has no apparent investigative interest over any of the individuals involved in the break-in of Democratic National Headquarters, excepting BARKER.

DARDIS stated that on August 24, 1972 at Dade County, Florida, he interviewed and took a signed statement from MAURICE STANS. Present during that interview were JOHN O'BRIEN and KENNETH PARKINSON of the Republican Finance Committee and prominent Miami attorneys WILLIAM FREYTES and ROBERT FLOYD. Also present was a court reporter employed by Dade County, Florida. FLA.

In his statement to DARDIS, MAURICE STANS confirmed what DAHLBERG had told DARDIS on August 23, 1972, about DAHLBERG giving personally to STANS a cashier's check payable to DAHLBERG, in the amount of $25,000, at the Washington Hilton Hotel, Washington, D.C., on April 11, 1972.

DARDIS exhibited to MAURICE STANS a copy of the cashier's check payable to DAHLBERG. Thereupon STANS stated he recalled DAHLBERG had told STANS on April 11, 1972 that DAHLBERG had endorsed this check. However, STANS stated he does not recall actually having seen DAHLBERG's endorsement at the time he received the check from DAHLBERG.

MAURICE STANS also denied in his statement of August 24, 1972 knowing BERNARD BARKER. STANS was not asked whether or not he knew or was connected with any of the other persons arrested with BARKER at Democratic National Headquarters.

MAURICE STANS thereafter stated that after receiving the check for $25,000 from DAHLBERG on April 11, 1972, he gave the check on the same date, at the Washington Hilton Hotel, to HUGH SLOAN, JR., Treasurer of the Committee to Re-Elect President RICHARD M. NIXON. STANS stated he later received a "report" on the same day that SLOAN had given the check to G. GORDON LIDDY, the Legal Counsel of the Committee to Re-Elect the President.

DARDIS stated he asked STANS about any knowledge he might have concerning the four checks totaling $89,000 which were negotiated in Mexico. STANS replied that he had never seen any of these checks and had no first-hand knowledge regarding them.

Mr. DARDIS finally advised he does not know who gave information to Washington, D.C., columnist JACK ANDERSON regarding the DAHLBERG interview by DARDIS.

~~MANUEL VILLAR~~, Auditor, Sea View Hotel, 9909 Collins Avenue, Dade County, Florida, was interviewed at his place of employment and furnished the following information:

~~315 SANTANDER AVE, CORAL GABLES, FLA.~~

VILLAR stated that safe deposit box number 305 was applied for on April 5, 1972 by either KENNETH DAHLBERG or DWAYNE ANDREAS. He further advised that ANDREAS asked for the custody card for box 305 on 8/24/72 and to date the card has not been returned to the file box. VILLAR advised that ANDREAS told him he was taking possession of the card upon the advise of his(ANDREAS') attorney.

VILLAR advised that he remembers seeing the custody card for box 305 and further stated that he recognized the writing on the card as belonging to ROUVILLE BEDARD, a former clerk at the hotel. He advised that BEDARD is not working at the hotel at present and that BEDARD can be reached in Canada at telephone number (514) 739-5785. He further stated that while employed by the Sea View, BEDARD listed a Social Security number 289-36-3588 and a local address of 1141 71st Street, Miami Beach, Florida.

He advised that to the best of his recollection, the name of KENNETH DAHLBERG did not appear on the custody card for the safe deposit box. He further stated that DAHLBERG was not a guest at the hotel when the box was being utilized.

VILLAR advised that DWAYNE ANDREAS' current address is Route 2, Excelsior, Minnesota, and that his business is First Inter oceanic Corporation, Sheraton-Ritz Hotel, Minneapolis, Minnesota. He further stated that ANDREAS is the president of the 32-man group which owns the Sea View Hotel.

VILLAR advised that he remembers ANDREAS asking him for the sum of $25,000 sometime in early March 1972. He advised that there was nothing unusual in this request because ANDREAS frequently asked for large sums of money for various reasons. He stated that he told ANDREAS that he did not have that much money in the cash drawer at the time and that he would have to get it from the bank.
